Refund Policy

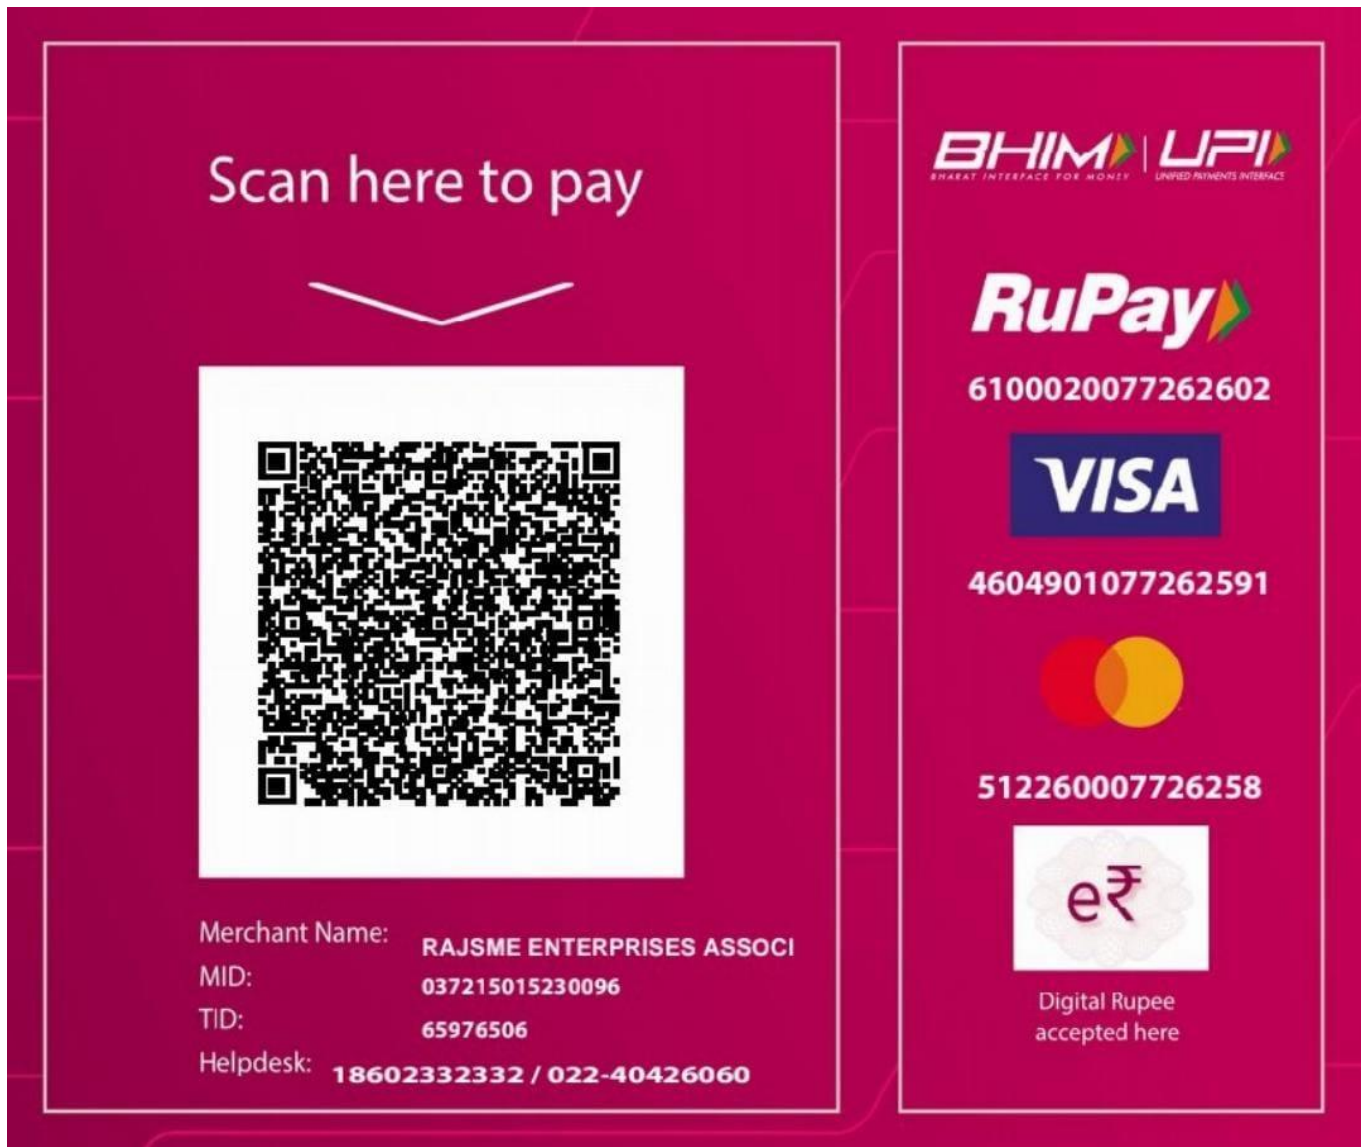

- Once you use any main membership benefits—such as access to RAJSME resources, participation in events, or promotional opportunities—the membership fee is non-refundable.
- In special cases (e.g., wrong payment, application rejection, or no usage of benefits within the two years term), a refund can be requested in writing. All refund requests will be reviewed, and approved refunds may have small deductions for administrative charges.
- A refund request will be accepted only if the exhibitor or member provides RAJSME with written information about the relevant schemes and opportunities, so that the organization can take necessary steps to provide the benefits.
- If, despite being informed by the organization, the member or exhibitor does not participate in any scheme or opportunity due to personal reasons, RAJSME will not be responsible, and refund claims in such cases will not be valid.

Join risk-free — if, within Two years of joining, you have not used any membership benefits, you may request a full refund.
